The Métamatic Research Initiative announces the results of its Call for Entries.

We are pleased to announce the results of the Call for Entries. Of the 281 entries received, our distinguished jury has selected seven artists whose proposals will be commissioned.

The jury:

- Alanna Heiss: Founder of P.S.1 Contemporary Art Center and director of Art International Radio
- Jitish Kallat: Indian artist and writer
- Roland Wetzels: Director of Museum Tinguely
- Sarah Wilson: Reader in the History of Art at Courtauld Institute of Art, University of London
- Julia Robinson: Assistant professor at the department of Art History of the New York University
- Denise René, Honorary member: Gallery owner. Denise René organised the legendary exhibition 'Le Mouvement' in 1955, creating the first platform for Kinetic Art.

The seven artists (in alphabetical order):

- Ranjit Bhatnagar (USA)
- John Bock (Germany)
- Aleksandra Hirsfeld (Poland)
- Jon Kessler (USA)
- Pors & Rao (India)
- João Simões (Portugal)
- Brigitte Zieger (France)

All Art Initiatives director Siebe Tettero commented:

'We are very pleased with the Jury's decision. The choice reflects a wide range of media and expresses a diversity which will make the collection of works very exciting. All of the selections reflect on Tinguely's work in their own unique way which distinguishes the proposals but also unites them.'
